

The Original Whip-Up

Trigger assembled from light barstock steel or aluminum. Heavy wire soldered on one end of trigger (wire goes into rod tip). Open wire loop is soldered on other end (line from rod drapes over loop before running down to hole in ice). Base of trigger accommodates 1/8-inch bolt or pin. Bolt allows trigger to rock back and forth.

Trigger Assembly (side view)

The Whip-Up Device

